The Cross of Christ Is the Tree of Life, Which Bears Abundant Fruit after Its Own Kind

The parables of our Lord convey the mysteries of the kingdom of God to those who are "able to hear it," that is, "to his own disciples," who are catechized to fear, love and trust in Him by faith (Mark 4:33-34). He scatters "seed on the ground," which "sprouts and grows" unto life, even as "he sleeps and rises" (Mark 4:26-27). "On the mountain height of Israel," He plants a young and tender twig, and it becomes "a noble cedar." Indeed, His own cross becomes the Tree of Life, under which "every kind of bird" will dwell, and in which "birds of every sort will nest" (Ezek. 17:22-25). His cross is our resting place, even while now in mortal bodies, we "groan, being burdened" (2 Cor. 5:1-4). Yet in faith, we live for God in Christ, who for our sake "died and was raised" (2 Cor. 5:15). We know that, in His resurrected body, "we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens" (2 Cor. 5:1).

Opening Hymn

"O Worship the King"

LSB 840

1 O wor - ship the King, all - glo - rious a - bove.
2 O tell of His might, O sing of His grace,
3 This earth, with its store of won - ders un - told,
4 Thy boun - ti - ful care what tongue can re - cite?

O grate - ful - ly sing His pow'r and His love;
Whose robe is the light, whose can - o - py space;
Al - might - y, Thy pow'r hath found - ed of old,
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,

Our shield and de - fend - er, the An - cient of Days,
His char - iots of wrath the deep thun - der - clouds form,
Es - tab - lished it fast by a change - less de - cree,
It streams from the hills, it de - scends to the plain,

Pa - vil - ioned in splen - dor and gird - ed with praise.
 And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.
 And round it hath cast, like a man - tle, the sea.
 And sweet - ly dis - tills in the dew and the rain.

5 Frail children of dust
 and feeble as frail,
 In Thee do we trust,
 nor find Thee to fail.
 Thy mercies, how tender,
 how firm to the end,
 Our maker, defender,
 redeemer, and friend!

6 O measureless Might,
 ineffable Love,
 While angels delight
 to hymn Thee above,
 Thy humbler creation,
 though feeble their lays,
 With true adoration
 shall sing to Thy praise.

Opening Versicles

P This is the day which the Lord has made;

C let us rejoice and be glad in it.

P From the rising of the sun to its setting,

C the name of the Lord is to be praised.

P Better is one day in Your courts than a thousand elsewhere;

C I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked.

P Make me to know Your ways, O Lord.

C Teach me Your paths.

P Sanctify us in Your truth.

C Your Word is truth.

P From the rising of the sun to its setting,

C the name of the Lord is to be praised.

C Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Readings From Holy Scripture

Old Testament

Ezekiel 17:22–24

P A reading from Ezekiel, the seventeenth chapter.

²²Thus says the Lord GOD: “I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of the cedar and will set it out. I will break off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. ²³On the mountain height of Israel will I plant it, that it may bear branches and produce fruit and become a noble cedar. And under it will dwell every kind of bird; in the shade of its branches birds of every sort will nest. ²⁴And all the trees of the field shall know that I am the LORD; I bring low the high tree, and make high the low tree, dry up the green tree, and make the dry tree flourish. I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will do it.”

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Psalms 1

P ¹Blessèd is the man
 who walks not in the counsel of the wicked,
 nor stands in the way of sinners,
 nor sits in the seat of scoffers;

C ²but his delight is in the law of the LORD,
 and on his law he meditates day and night.

P ³He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season,
 and its leaf does not wither.
 In all that he does, he prospers.

C ⁴The wicked are not so,
 but are like chaff that the wind drives away.

- P ⁵Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;
C ⁶for the LORD knows the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked will perish.

Epistle

2 Corinthians 5:1–17

¹We know that if the tent, which is our earthly home, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. ²For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling, ³if indeed by putting it on we may not be found naked. ⁴For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

⁶So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, ⁷for we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. ¹⁰For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil.

¹¹Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. ¹²We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart. ¹³For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; ¹⁵and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

¹⁶From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. ¹⁷Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

- P This is the Word of the Lord.
C Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mark 4:26–34

- P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the fifth chapter.
C Glory to You, O Lord.

²⁶[Jesus] said, “The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground. ²⁷He sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows; he knows not how. ²⁸The earth produces by itself, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. ²⁹But when the grain is ripe, at once he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

³⁰And he said, “With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use for it? ³¹It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when sown on the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth, ³²yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants and puts out large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.”

³³With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it. ³⁴He did not speak to them without a parable, but privately to his own disciples he explained everything.

Psalms, hymns, or choral music may be sung between the readings.

Responsory

- P Forever, O Lord, Your Word is firmly set in the heavens.

- C Lord, I love the habitation of Your house and the place where Your glory dwells.
- P Blessed are those who hear the Word of God and keep it.
- C Lord, I love the habitation of Your house and the place where Your glory dwells.
- P Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.
- C Lord, I love the habitation of Your house and the place where Your glory dwells.

C Lord, have mercy. . . .

P Finally, for these and for all our needs of body and soul, let us pray to the Lord:

C Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Collect of the Day

P Blessed Lord, since You have caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Morning Prayer

C I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me.

Joint Youth Group with Schwer!!

This afternoon from 4-6p, our youth group, will host the youth group from St. John's Schwer. As a reminder, you are encouraged to read 1-2 Timothy (both books) as we look to see what type of mentor we should look for and to be for others. Please bring $5 to help cover the cost of pizza. Any questions, please contact Melissa.

Welcome Renee as Our Savior's New Secretary

Renee Minton will take over the duties as Our Savior's Church Secretary beginning this week. Renee can be reached by email at secretary@oursaviormilford.com. The bulletin and newsletter deadline will remain the same, Wednesdays at 10a. As with all changes, there will be bumps in the road and we ask you show grace when those bumps arise.

Thank you!!

Thank you, Kendra, for your 10 years of service as Church Secretary at Our Savior Lutheran Church. Kendra has taken a new position at Purdue University and is planning to relocate to the Lafayette area as the new school year approaches.

New Bulletin Format!!!

As you may have noticed, Pastor uses the services as they are printed in the hymnal. This means we can save paper, toner, time, and money each week with a smaller bulletin. The bulletin will be very similar to what Pastor Wagner used in his time at Our Savior. This smaller bulletin will make its debut next week!!

Prayer List Requests

We are clearing the Prayer List, with the exception of those in the military, law enforcement and ministry. Prayer requests can be made through the web site (under the "Contact Us" tab) or by calling or emailing the office (either secretary@oursaviormilford.com or pastor_doug@oursaviormilford.com). Requests are good for three weeks, but they can be renewed by contacting the office.

Times Still Available - Visit Pastor and Family!!

Pastor and family are looking forward to getting to know you and your family a little better. There is a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board in the Narthex with dates still open when Pastor and his family are available. We can share a meal, cup of coffee, or dessert; at your home, the parsonage or Fellowship Hall. Your visit can be with Pastor Doug, Pastor and Renee or the whole family. I am looking forward to this wonderful opportunity to help increase the bonds with in the congregation as we continue to take these opening steps in our journey together as Pastor and congregation.

Milford Block Party!!

OSLC has a booth at Milford's first annual Block Party this Saturday from 10am-3pm! Stop by and help us promote our congregation so that the community knows what we believe, teach and confess. If you would like to accompany Pastor and Mahlah for a while during the day, you are more than welcome to do so! Just drop by and help connect your friends, neighbors, and even strangers, to Our Savior!

Scrip Orders - June 27

Do you go shopping, eat out, or go to the movies? Do you ever gift someone else with the opportunity to do those things? Most likely, all of us would answer "yes" to at least some of those questions. This is why everyone LOVES the Scrip Card program, available each month at OSLC!

Order forms (located on the informational rack in the Narthex) and payment are due to the Church Office by Sunday, June 27, 2021. Gift Cards will arrive and be distributed that same week. Please consider supporting the youth (and future leaders of the congregation) in this simple way!

Lutherans for Life Quote

"It's a terrible thing to see any life that is used and abused instead of being protected and cared for. The value of life should not be based on the benefits it can offer. So we pray to the Lord to move all people to value and appreciate all life as God's gift." Rev. Peter Sulzle, St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church, Redwood Falls, Minnesota – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org

Moments with Mahlah

For the Week of June 6, 2021

Mahlah began her week with a very exciting pair of visits to Trinity, Goodland and St. John's, Renssalaer in Indiana, with Diane Costello as her handler. The visit at St. John's was especially good, because it was Confirmation day for Mahlah's very good friend Dillan, and also the day of Baptism for Dillan's young cousin Madoline. Mahlah's friendship with Dillan goes all the way back to March of 2017, not long after Mahlah began her Comfort Dog ministry at OSLC. Dillan's sister Addie is also a friend, and has shared many of the visits over the years,.

Mahlah's regular training session for this week happened on Wednesday, with Al Kellerhals as handler for her brush-up on commands, and the walk around the neighborhood in Milford. After that, some one-on-one visits with some friends completed her morning.

At this writing no other events were on the schedule for the week, but as always, she remained ready to go should the need arise.

Remember to email Mahlah at Mahlah@K9Comfort.org if you know of an individual or organization that would benefit from a visit. Thanks for your continued support as we seek to bring the compassion, mercy, presence, and proclamation of Jesus to all.
